

'Star Wars' fans show up in force

PHOTOS BY KAREEM ELGAZZAR/THE ENQUIRER

"Star Wars: The Force Awakens" opened at the Cobb Liberty Luxury 15 & CinéBistro theater at the Liberty Center on Thursday in West Chester Township. Characters from the movie – Darth Vader, Princess Leia and two Storm Troopers – roamed the Liberty Center before the film's premiere.

Maggie Rader, of Cincinnati, poses for a photo dressed as Princess Leia during the "Star Wars: The Force Awakens" premiere at the Cobb Liberty Luxury 15 & CinéBistro theater at the Liberty Center. It's the seventh installment in the series.

Darth Vader appears at the premiere of "Star Wars: The Force Awakens" at the Cobb Liberty Luxury 15 & CinéBistro theater at the Liberty Center on Thursday in West Chester Township.

"Star Wars" fans duel with lightsabers before the premiere of "Star Wars: The Force Awakens" at the Cobb Liberty Luxury 15 & CinéBistro theater at the Liberty Center on Thursday in West Chester Township. Characters from the movie – Darth Vader, Princess Leia and two Storm Troopers – roamed the Liberty Center prior to the film's premiere.