CinéBistro, Miami

Crystal beaded curtains act as dividers throughout this 21-and-up dinner-cinema, which features a sleekly backlit bar for preshow and after-movie drinks and comfortable, high-backed leather seating. All meals are served before the movie to ensure a distraction-free experience, so be sure to arrive at least 30 minutes early to place orders for house-ground burgers and movie-inspired cocktails like the Happy Gilmore, a boozy take on the Arnold Palmer made with sweet tea-flavored vodka and pink lemonade.
