

Trendy opulence in Florida

Crystal-beaded curtains act as dividers in Miami's CinéBistro, which features a sleek backlit bar for pre- and post-movie drinks, and comfortable, high-backed leather seating. All meals are served before the film to ensure a distraction-free experience; arrive at least 30 minutes in advance to place orders for house-ground burgers and movie-inspired cocktails such as the Happy Gilmore, made with sweet tea-flavoured vodka and pink lemonade.
