CinéBistro (Miami, FL, and various locations)

Florida is about fun in the sun but what happens when night falls? Let's nix the alligator hunting idea and instead catch a movie at CinéBistro. Feast on yellowfin tuna tacos and guayaba con queso empanadas as you watch your flick, a welcome break from fast-paced Miami. Be sure to order one of CinéBistro's special cocktails, like the Joy Luck Club Lychee and Tropic Thunder. (Credit: Courtesy of Isaac Stewart)

The plight of a food lover faced with a movie theater's almost-stale popcorn and watered-down soda is all too real. Thankfully, some culinary-minded theater owners across America have come to the rescue, offering waiter service, signature cocktails, and gourmet snacks for customers to enjoy with Hollywood's best flicks from the past and present. Just in time for the holiday movie season, here are seven food-lover friendly theaters around the country. Forget dinner and a movie—do a dinner at a movie.
